

Intellectual Property Team for UW–Madison Technologies

GENERAL COUNSEL

Michael Falk
michael@warf.org
608.265.4527

UW–Madison Faculty, Staff & Students

Have you discovered a novel, useful and inventive technology with commercial potential?

Learn about disclosing and protecting your intellectual property with WARF at: warf.org/inventors

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY STAFF

ENGINEERING & PHYSICAL SCIENCES

Stephanie Whitehorse
stephanie@warf.org
608.265.5928

Justin Anderson
janderson@warf.org
608.262.2961

Brian Frushour
bfrushour@warf.org
608.890.1830

Leah Haman
lhaman@warf.org
608.890.3078

LIFE SCIENCES

Paulanne Chelf
pchelf@warf.org
608.263.4957

Beth Werner
bwerner@warf.org
608.262.3095

Victoria Sutton
vsutton@warf.org
608.890.1307

WARF's intellectual property team is your best resource for determining if a patent should be filed on your discovery to protect your ownership rights. WARF will assess if your invention is:

- novel, useful and non-obvious, the basic criteria of the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office;
- marketable with projected commercial and societal value; and
- appropriate for a patent or other type of legal protection.